White and Sterrett Pound Ball Viciously and Brilliant Fielding Abounds.

Princeton, N. J., May 20.-Playing perfect baseball that frequently merged on the sensational, the Tigers shut out Harvard this afternoon by a score of 5 to 0. Woodle was in fine fettle and held the Crimson patters to three scratch hits. At no time was Harvard dangerous, not a man getting beyond second. McLaughlin also sitched a good game, but the big sticks of Captain White and Sterrett proved his doing. The Princeton captain got three screaming singles and a three-bagger in four times at the bat, while Sterrett bange out a single and a triple in four times up. besides scoring White in the eighth with a hot liner to McLaughlin which had to be felded to first. Woodle was the only other Princeton man to get a hit.

The Tigers worked everything in their repertory, scoring two runs by means of ze play and another on the hitrett were again the principal factors.

Besides their splendid work on the bases the Tigers fielded in sensational style. Prescott made a wonderful stop of Reeves's hit in the fifth and Parker made a diving catch of a low fly from Potter's bat in the tributed to the sensational fielding of the
